

Fulvio Bottega graduated with first class honours from “Vivaldi” conservatory of music in Alessandria while studying with Giorgio Vercillo. Later he studied with Jean Micault and Vlado Perlemuter. Meanwhile he has been awarded at many national and international competitions. He has performed all over the world especially as Opera singers accompanist collaborating with worldwide famous artists as, among the others, Renata Scotto, Fiorenza Cossotto, Rita Orlandi Malaspina, Virginia Zeani, Aldo Protti, Katia Ricciarelli. He is often invited to hold courses and master classes in Japan and South Korea. In addition to his activities as pianist and teacher he also organizes courses, competitions, music and Opera festivals.