

Piera Mazzone, director of Varallo Sesia «Farinone-Centa» library, got her diploma in Archival science, Palaeography and Diplomatic from the Turin National Archives and graduated in Modern and Contemporary literature from University of Turin (graduation thesis: “Glossary of Medieval Latin from Statutes of Valsesia”, supervisor Prof. Giuliano Gasca Queirazza).

She has also been pursuing research activities for years.

Member of Professional Journalism Organization, she writes for local press and regularly holds lectures on library science and local history.